

DONOVAN RICHARDS JR.

QUEENS BOROUGH PRESIDENT

Hurricane Melissa Relief Drive

In the wake of Hurricane Melissa's destructive path across Jamaica, Queens is stepping up to help our Caribbean neighbors. Borough President Donovan Richards, in partnership with the Consulate General of Jamaica in New York, is accepting donations of critically needed supplies to assist those impacted by the hurricane. Donations can be dropped off 24/7 in a collection box in the lobby of Queens Borough Hall.

ACCEPTABLE ITEMS INCLUDE:

- Medical supplies such as bandages, gauze pads, masks, alcohol pads, latex gloves and over-the-counter medication such as Neosporin and Tylenol.
- Hygienic supplies such as sanitizer, diapers, toothpaste and menstrual products
- Tarps and bedding

No food or clothing will be accepted

Collecting Supplies through January 5th

Drop off location: Queens Borough Hall
